

We originally conceived this to go with the introductory Alpha session called Christianity: Boring, Untrue or Irrelevant?

Cast: C1, C2 Street Cleaners, RD, Person reading a newspaper, VR - vendor giving away free drinks

Scene C1,C2 sweeping pavement. RD on bench reading a newspaper with shopping bags at feet.

C1 Phew - it's so hot
 C2 You're right - this is thirsty work.
 C1 I wish I had one of those really big bottles of Coke
 C2 Coke? It's disgusting. I hate Coke - yuk! That fizzy stuff isn't thirst quenching you know. Do you know what's in that? Acid. Phosphoric acid. If you leave a nail in it overnight it dissolves! I wouldn't let it pass my lips.
 C1 Don't be so critical. A lot of people drink Coke and you don't see them dissolving do you? That's the problem these days - people want to do others down for their genuine beliefs. I'm a Coke person and proud of it. Anyway, what would you like to drink then?
 C2 You're touchy aren't you? Now me, I fancy a big can of lager.
 C1 Lager? I never took you to be a lager lout. It's not thirst quenching either is it. For all I know, you'll probably end up sweeping the grass after you've had a few!
 C2 What was that about doing other people down? Besides, I can't have anything until we're off shift. What a pity we didn't bring something to drink with us.
 C1 I'm going to sit down. (both sit down)
 C2 I hope the boss doesn't catch us slacking on the job.
 C1 No - he's probably down the pub having a drink (both laugh)
 RD Don't talk to me about drink - I'm parched!
 C2 Then go and buy one.
 RD Easier said than done. I'm spent out and I've got to wait here for my bus home.
 C2 Shame that. We've a couple of hours till we come off shift
 C1 Yeah. I wish we'd brought a bottle of Coke.
 C2 Not that rubbish again. It's been scientifically proved that it does not quench your thirst..
 C1 (toRD) So what would you buy then if you had the money?
 RD Oh, probably one of those cartons of cranberry juice.
 C2 Ugh! I don't know how people can stand that stuff.
 RD Don't be so critical, I've a right to drink that stuff if I wish, It's a free country. I hate people who do others down just because they don't do the same as you.
 VR (enters) Good morning. You all look thirsty. Well, it's your lucky day. How about a refreshing drink?
 C2 Sounds good to me. How much?
 VR It's absolutely free - we're doing a promotion.
 C1,C2, Great.
 RD
 VR Here you are (hands over bottle of water to C1)
 C1 (looks disapprovingly) What's this?
 VR It's a bottle of spring water - guaranteed pure with all the necessary minerals for a balanced and healthy lifestyle. Look at the label.
 C1 (Indignant) But I don't drink this!

VR What's wrong with it?

C1 Water's sooooo boring. It's just tasteless and uninteresting. I never touch it. You can't compare it to a bottle of Coke - now that's real heaven!

VR Did you know that water is the most thirst-quenching of all drinks. You'll never get that from a bottle of Coke.

C1 I'm fed up of you self-righteous types coming and telling us to drink water. I've a right to my heaven not your boring rubbish,

VR I don't think our water is boring. Have you ever tried it. We do it in a number of flavours too.

C1 Try it. Of course not - why should I do that?

VR If you've never tried it you'll never know

C1 (returning the bottle) Boring is boring. Why should I?

VR (to C2) What about you?

C2 My friend's right. This stuff about mineral water is completely untrue. I mean - scientists have proved it haven't they - there's nothing in mineral water.

VR Well, there's water and minerals

C2 Poppycock that's what I say. The facts are against you.

RD People like you shouldn't be allowed to give that stuff away. I'd never trust a freebie. There's no such thing as a free lunch. It must be rubbish.

VR But it's free I assure you and very thirst quenching on a day like this.

C2 Rubbish. Untrue. Scientist have disproved it. Water is a waste of time and should not be drunk.

VR Which scientists?

C2 I don't know. Scientists. They just have that's all.

RD Drinking water is an irrelevant nonsense

VR Look, all I'm doing is trying to give you a bottle of water on a hot day. Free, gratis and thirst quenching. What's wrong with you people?

C1 Get the message - we don't want your trash - it's boring!

C2 Your claims are untrue

RD And you're irrelevant, so push off and leave us in peace.

VR Very well. But I just can't understand how thirsty people can turn down a free drink of water (exits)

C1 Water. What nonsense.

C2 I wish these people giving freebies away would just leave others in peace.

RD True. Mind you, I could do with a drink.

C2 I've got half a chocolate bar here, perhaps that will help.

RD Don't be daft. Anyway here's my bus.

C1 And we'd better get back to work.

C2 I can't get over the nerve of that person offering us water. Why would anybody want to deceive us like that into drinking water?

C1 I don't know. The next thing they'll be telling us is that eternal life is free or something.

C1, C2 Ha,ha, ha. (exit)

VR Jesus said, "Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again, but whoever drinks the water I give him will never thirst. Indeed, the water I give him will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life."
